Camp Croix's Purpose

Your camp seeks to offer a week of fun, activity, Bible study, worship and fellowship in a Christian atmosphere. A week at Camp Croix includes devotions, Bible study, sports, swimming, canoeing, handicrafts, and other outdoor activities.

An efficient and dedicated staff of adults and young people will direct the program under the leadership of the Camp Director.

Adults interested in becoming counselor to staff members may contact their pastor for application forms. Or visit www.campcroix.org

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Camp Croix admits campers of any age, sex, handicap, race, color, national and ethnic origin to generally accorded or made available to people using our camp.

It does not discriminate on the basis of sex, age, handicap, race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its camp use policies, and other camp administered programs.
